

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

JEFFREY J. GRAHAM APPOINTED BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Jeffrey J. Graham has been appointed United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Indiana, replacing Bankruptcy Judge James K. Coachys. Judge Graham's appointment became effective October 1, 2014. The official press release from the Seventh Circuit has been posted on the Court's website. Here is a link to that announcement:

<http://www.insb.uscourts.gov/docs/judgegraham.pdf>

All cases previously assigned to Judge Coachys have been transferred. Most have been assigned to Judge Graham. However, a few cases in which Judge Graham had a possible conflict have been assigned to other Judges. (In addition, all of Judge Otte's pending New Albany cases have been transferred to Chief Judge Robyn L. Moberly.)

Please update the captions on any pleadings you are filing or orders you are submitting in cases formerly assigned to Judge Coachys to show the proper Judge's initials.
Judge Graham's initials are "JJG."

October 1, 2014

/s/ Kevin P. Dempsey
Clerk